4. Benefits

- a. Accidental Permanent Partial Disability (APPD) Benefit:
 - i. If you suffer a Permanent Partial Disability due to an accident, you will receive 50% of the Rider Sum Assured as APPD Benefit under this rider. Once this benefit is paid, no further payouts will be made for any future Permanent Partial Disability. The rider will remain active in coverage against Permanent Total Disability, as long as you continue paying premiums. Your base Policy and other riders will continue as is.
- b. Accidental Permanent Total Disability (APTD) Benefit:
 - i. If you have not received any APPD Benefit earlier: You will get the higher of the Rider Sum Assured or the Guaranteed Benefit. After this payment, the rider will end. Your Base Policy and other riders will continue as is.
 - ii. If you already received the APPD Benefit less than one year ago: You will get 50% of the Rider Sum Assured. If the Guaranteed Benefit is more than 100% of the Rider Sum Assured, the extra amount will also be paid. After this, the rider will end. Your Base Policy and other riders will continue as is.
 - iii. If you already received the APPD benefit at least one year ago: You will get the higher of the Rider Sum Assured or the Guaranteed Benefit. After this payment, the rider will end. Your base Policy and other riders will continue as is.

5. Premium Payment

Rider Premiums are payable for the Premium Payment Term at the frequency of the premiums provided in the Base Policy. In the event the rider is availed after the issuance of the Base Policy at any time during the Base Policy Period, the Rider Premium Payment Term will be aligned to match the Base Policy Premium Payment Period.

6. Non-Payment and Grace Period

Grace Period under this rider is subject to conditions of the Base Policy. If Rider Premiums are not paid before the end of the Grace Period, the rider will Lapse and no benefits will be available under this rider.

Part D Servicing of your Rider and Options Offered

7. Free Look Period

- a. Every policyholder, except for those riders with tenure of less than a year, shall be provided with a free look period of 30 days beginning from the date of receipt of rider policy document, whether received electronically or otherwise, to review the terms and conditions of such policy.
- b. In the event a policyholder disagrees to any of the rider policy terms or conditions, or otherwise and has not made any claim, he shall have the option to return the rider document to the insurer for cancellation, stating the reasons for the same.
- c. Irrespective of the reasons mentioned, the policyholder shall be entitled to a refund of the Rider Premium paid subject only to a deduction of a proportionate rider risk premium for the period of cover and the expenses, if any, incurred by the insurer on medical examination of the proposer and stamp duty charges.
- d. The request for cancellation of the rider during free look period shall be processed and Rider Premium shall be refunded within 7 days of receipt of such request.

8. Revival

In the event this rider Lapses, and if Base Policy is either active or being revived along with the rider, then this rider may be revised subject to the following:

- a. The application for revival is made within the revival period in the base Policy from the due date of the first unpaid Rider Premium;
- b. Payment of all the unpaid Rider Premiums due are paid along with interest at 10% per annum compounded half-yearly;

11. Rider Termination Value

During any time of the Rider Term, if you wish to close this rider, you may Terminate it. Additionally, if the Base Policy is surrendered, then this rider will also terminate. Termination Value is only payable if the Rider Premium Payment Term is Single Premium or the Rider Premium Payment Term is less than the Rider Term and after the completion of the Rider Premium Payment Term along with all due premiums being received by us. However, Termination Value will not be paid if at-least one of the benefit under the rider is availed. Termination Value is calculated by multiplying the termination value factor with the Rider Premium paid. Termination Value factors are available on our website.

12. Health Management Services

If your Rider is active and all premiums are paid up-to-date, you will have the option to use Health Management Services such as medical second opinions, case management, or medical consultations from service providers registered with the Company. These services are designed to help you get the right diagnosis and appropriate care for an illness.

These services are available subject to:

- a. The chosen service being offered by the service provider at the time you request it.
- b. You having already obtained a first diagnosis and medical opinion from a qualified doctor.
- c. You providing all required medical records to the service provider.

It is agreed that:

- a. These services are optional, provided at no extra cost during the premium paying term. You may decide whether to use them and whether to follow the treatment suggested.
- b. The services are delivered directly by third party service providers, without the Company's involvement.
- c. The Company is not responsible for any liability arising from these services.
- d. The Company may start, stop, or change the service providers at any time.
- e. If the Health Management Services feature is discontinued or changed, the Company will inform you and notify IRDAI.
